

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS
is recommended
Hahn's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS
THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.
They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance; they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

covery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

dicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this

MONDAY, JUNE 15, 1818.

STANZEAS.

FROM THE BRITISH PRESS, MARCH, 1818.

"Life is a jest!"—A jest! O no!
At least I have not found it so.
A jest!—A bitter jest, indeed,
That often makes the bosom bleed.

Life is no jest!—No, no! and he
Who said it spoke in mockery.
Life is a dull and twice told tale,
Where melancholy thoughts prevail.

THE WAY TO HEAVEN.

Sir Richard Steele, (who greatly contributed by his wit and humor, to enliven and diversify those inimitable productions, the Spectator, Tatler, & Guardian, about the year 1726, made a journey to Scotland in company with several gentlemen of distinction. On their way, when near Annan, they observed a flock of sheep, and at a little distance their keeper stretched on the ground, with a book in his hand. Sir Richard, having a little inclination for humor, proposed to his companions to have some sport with the shepherd; on which they all rode up to him, and the knight inquired the title of the book in his hand. The shepherd immediately started on his feet, and told him, "And pray, my friend, what do you learn from this book?" continued Sir Richard. "I learn from it the way to heaven," replied the other. "Very well," added the knight, "we are all fellow travellers bound to the same place, and it will be very obliging if you will show us the way thither." "With all my heart," rejoined the countryman, "if you will go with me to yonder eminence." To this proposal Sir Richard and his company assented, and followed their guide to a rising ground, from thence they had a view of an antique tower a few miles distant. The shepherd then turning to Sir Richard, "you see, sir," said he, "yonder tower, the place you ask for lies close by it, and that is indeed the only safe and certain road to happiness." Surprised at this strange direction, Sir Richard inquired of him what the tower was called. "A'nt please your honor, the name of it is—The Tower of Repentance."

ESCAPE FROM FIRE.

In an intelligent and useful little volume, entitled "The Accidents of Human Life, with hints for their prevention, or the removal of their consequences," a very simple apparatus is described, for the purpose of conveying persons from the upper stories of houses that are on fire. The melancholy destruction of Mr. Wheeler's family by the fire in the Strand last week, is an event sufficiently awful to awaken public attention to the most simple and efficacious means of providing for safety under such calamitous circumstances. The following is a description of the apparatus—it consists of a pole from 36 to 40 feet, the diameter at bottom about 5 inches, and at top about three. Three feet from the top is a mortise through the pole, with a pulley fixed therein. A rope of about three quarters of an inch diameter twice the length of the pole with a spring hook at one end, to which is attached a basket of a strong wicker three feet and a half long, and two feet and a half wide, and four feet deep, rounded at the corners and bottom. The pole has a spike at the bottom, and a sort of hook at the top, which prevents its slipping; and being set against a house over the window from which persons are to escape; the manner of using it is so simple and efficacious, that a description cannot be needless. The poles should be kept under any convenient sheds and gateways, and the baskets deposited in the several watch-houses or watch-boxes. There are some further details and particulars in the book, and descriptive copperplates of this and other inventions of a similar useful tendency.—[Lon. pap.]

Oscar, the present Crown Prince of Sweden, is said to be an excellent musician, and to have already composed several pieces which have been highly extolled by the best judges.

ALEXANDRIA: MONDAY, JUNE 15, 1818.

Mr. EDITOR.—It is with regret that I see so little attention given to our military parades. There was a time when Alexandria could boast of as much martial pride as, perhaps, any other place of equal size in the Union. But how much have our young men degenerated from the principles which actuated our citizens a few years since—then there was scarcely a store to be seen open on parade days—but now, there is little of military show even on the days of our great National Festival—a time that should cause every American bosom to glow with that martial pride that animated the immortal Washington.

As a member of the President's Horse Guards, I beg leave to call the attention of the officers of that highly respectable company to a sense of its welfare. The number enrolled in that corps is by no means small, yet scarcely a dozen turn out even on the regular muster days. In my opinion, the members of such a corps should take pride in associating as often as possible, exclusive of compulsory days—for it is certainly of consequence that they become expert horsemen, and attain a proficiency in the broad sword exercise. I know the officers are, in all respects, adequate to the discharge of their respective duties—but, permit me to ask—Why are not the rolls regularly called, and delinquents fined, as in other volunteer associations? I am confident if this salutary rule were rigidly enforced, its beneficial effects would soon be visible upon the parade ground, which would be highly gratifying to

A. TROOPER.

Information has been received in Baltimore, from St. Domingo, that Commodore Aury effected a landing in the early part of May at Samana, and had established his headquarters at Palanca Bay, a few leagues to the leeward of the city of St. Domingo. His settlement was viewed with alarm by the government, and all the regulars and militia had been put under arms, for the purpose of dislodging him.

From the National Advocate, we learn that the dispute between Gens. Jackson and Scott, originated in an opinion expressed by Gen. Scott, concerning the celebrated General Order issued by Gen'l. Jackson; which opinion was unfavorable to the manner and spirit of the order, as being calculated to create insubordination. This opinion was communicated to but one individual, in confidence, and was conveyed to Gen. Jackson in an anonymous letter. [Franklin Gaz.]

Gov. Wolcott has been elected Grand Master of Masons, for the state of Connecticut.

The spacious brick building lately occupied at Albany as a Theatre, has been sold to the Baptist society, and is to be converted into a house of public worship. We have understood that a meeting house lately occupied by the Baptists, at Portsmouth, N. H. has been lately purchased, to be used for a Theatre.

Extract of a letter from Buenos Ayres, to a gentleman in the city of N. York, dated March 4, 1818.

"We have been here nearly a month—the climate is delightful, and every thing is to be had that a man can wish for. Figs, limes, lemons, oranges, peaches, apples, grapes, &c. are in the greatest plenty, and very cheap. Peaches are sold at the rate of 50 for a rial, and of the finest I ever saw. There are a great number of privateers here, and others arriving almost every day. Seamen are much wanted—their wages are from 30 to 50 dollars per month. Ship carpenters receive 83 pe. day besides board and lodging, and are much sought after. You would be greatly amused to see what different methods are resorted to to procure men. The moment a man obtains leave to go ashore, he is instantly beset by a number of patriot officers, who offer him high wages and get him intoxicated, and by these means induce them to ship aboard their vessels. We have already lost 8 men who have swam away from the brig, and have been obliged to get others in their stead at 300 per month. The frigate Congress lies a short distance down the bay, and is unable to come up in sight of the town, on account of her drawing too much water. The principal part of her officers are here—also, six commissioners who are going to Valparaiso by land. Buenos Ayres is a very large town, and contains a great many inhabitants. The principal part of the houses are not more than two stories high, the roofs are flat, on which the inhabitants walk in the evening, and where they sometimes have bands of music. I have visited two of the principal churches, which in their exterior have a very mean appearance, but the interior is very magnificent. The superstition of the Spaniards almost exceeds belief: they will stab a man and rob him for a doubloon, while at the same time, the churches which are full of riches, and left open night and day, are not touched. The government is very arbitrary: it not very infrequently happens that persons are robbed at midnight, under the sanction of the patrol. I will give you an instance which fell under my own observation. One of our men having obtained leave to go ashore, was met by the patrol at nine in the evening, with an officer at their head; two of them (blacks) immediately seized him, one by each arm, and having conducted him a short distance out of town, stripped him naked, not leaving him even a shirt or a pair of shoes.

Balston Spa, June 3.

NEW MINERAL SPRING.

During a great flood in the month of August last, the creek which runs through this village, was opposite the factory, diverted from its usual course. When the flood subsided, a fountain was observed, boiling up through the sand, which, though mingled with a large quantity of fresh water, was evidently a mineral spring, of considerable strength. This spring, however, was not only mingled with fresh water, but was so foul and discolored from the blue clay and sand, through which it passed, as to be unfit to drink. Attempts were made to separate the fresh water by sinking a curb, but from the unfavorable nature of the ground, and the quantity of water, with very little success. At length a tube about fourteen feet long, was forced down, through which the water rose with increased strength, and in process of time so clarified itself as to become perfectly pure and transparent. By this means, the excellency of the spring has been proven beyond a doubt. It affords a clear, pungent, and powerful water, of the finest flavor imaginable. Since the opening of spring, it has been much frequented, and by all who are acquainted with it, is in the highest estimation.

Having frequented and drank the mineral waters in this country, more or less for ten years past, we confidently assert, that the New Spring Water is more pungent and pleasing to the taste, than that of any other in these parts, and as a cathartic, stands before any except the Congress, that has been discovered in this country.

The quantity of water and fixed air, which this spring discharges, is truly astonishing to every beholder, and much more so, when we consider that it has burst forth into the bottom of an artificial canal, which was dug about ten years since, and at that time showed no signs of any mineral water whatever. It is on the property of Nicholas Low, esq. of New-York, and directly in front of the extensive cotton mill on the west side of the village. From the powerful and excellent qualities of this water, both as a medicine and beverage, it will offer another inducement to the inhabitants of cities and others, to visit this place in their pleasure excursions or peregrinations in search of lost health.

Natchez, May 16.

FROM GALVESTOWN.

We are indebted to the politeness of Dr. J. H. Robinson, of this city, for the following extract of a letter from Dr. John Sibley—dated Natchitoches, April 25.

"Yesterday three gentlemen arrived here from Galvestown; they brought a number of letters to myself and others, from which, and the verbal statements of these gentlemen, it appears that on the 17th inst. when they left Galvestown, none of the United States' armed vessels had made their appearance. Lafitte, the younger, was on the island with near one hundred persons, principally those belonging to the vessels in the harbor about ten will; he had burnt the ship Campeachy and some smaller prizes;—that a brig was brought in a prize, lately taken by one of Lafitte's privateers, bound from Havana to Pensacola, with a valuable cargo, consisting of wine, rum, brandy, fruits, three or four hundred pieces of velvet, a quantity of soldiers' clothing, &c. There are no negroes there, nor at any place beyond the Sabine, except three on the island, belonging to some of the vessels; but it was reported, that one of the privateers from that place had taken a ship with three hundred negroes, but expecting some armed United States' vessels there were afraid to come in with them.

"The farther state, that Cooper, the harbor pilot, had found out a new channel, through which they could bring in vessels drawing 17 feet water with great safety.

"They further state, that on the 12th inst. general Lallemand, with his party, consisting of about 120 men, left the island and came to the Acacsesaw Bluff, on the Trinity, which is about 12 miles from its mouth, and more than 30 from Galvestown, took possession of that position, and were fortifying it, and preparing to mount some cannon. This party all appear to be gentlemen on an equality, though they observe the strictest order; they have nothing to do with the party of Lafitte, nor any connexion with any privateering. The vessel that brought them from Philadelphia had gone to New Orleans, commanded by a captain Humphreys. One of the gentlemen has informed me that he came from Galvestown to the Acacsesaw with general Lallemand to assist him; they crossed in the bay several narrow ridges of banks of shells, over which there was not more than three feet water, and it was the opinion that by opening a canal through those shells, which is easily done, a passage for vessels of considerable size would be opened into the Trinity river. General Lallemand and his party appear to hold the government of the United States in the highest consideration and respect. They expect in a short time, to be joined by many more of their friends—they avow their intention to be agricultural.

"Some persons have likewise just arrived here from St. Antonio, who say that there are at that place about two hundred men, including militia greatly distressed by the Indians, who harass them in sight of the town, and they are in want of every thing comfortable; they say, that by letters from Montelroy, they understand universal distress prevails throughout the whole kingdom of Mexico; that there are thirteen different commands of the Patriots acting separately, and that the Royalists regard that kind of disunion amongst the Patriots as fortunate for them. The fine stocks of horses, mules, sheep, and cattle, that almost literally covered the country between St. Antonio and river Grand, are broken up and destroyed."

Imprisonment for Debt.

Philanthropy and humanity having made such progress among us, we have no doubt but that they will carry their views to some legitimate object, such as the correction of the grievance, so happily ridiculed and exposed in the following article.—Those persons at least, who have been laboring for days and nights in the meretricious business of screening a murderer from the penalty due to his crimes, will surely bend their efforts to the furtherance of an object, viz. the continuance of the barbarous practice or imprisonment for debt, which they may honorably and with some benefit to society, interest themselves in—but having little hope from those who are, on special occasions, so outrageously humane, we recommend the subject to the serious attention of the people at large.

Sioberville Gaz.

Letter of an Indian Chief to his friend in the State of New-York.

Dear Sir.—Your letter came safe to hand. To give you entire satisfaction, I must, I perceive, enter into a discussion of a subject, on which I have often thought. My thoughts were my own, and being so different from the ideas entertained among your people, I should have certainly carried them with me to the grave, had I not received your obliging favor. You ask me then, whether in my opinion, civilization is favorable to human happiness? In answer to the question, it may be observed, that there are degrees in civilization from Canibals to the most polite European nations—the question is not whether a degree of refinement is not conducive to happiness, but whether you or the natives of this land have obtained the happy medium? On this subject we are at present of very different opinions: you will, however allow me in some respects to have had the advantage of you in forming my judgment. I was, sir, born of Indian parents and lived while a child, among those you are pleased to call savages, I was afterwards sent to live among the white people, and was educated at one of your schools; since which period, I have been honored much above my deserts, by an acquaintance with a number of principal characters both in Europe and America. After all this experience, and after every exertion to divest myself of prejudice, I am obliged to give my opinion in favor of my own people. I will now, as well as I am able, collect together, and set before you some of the reasons that have influenced my sentiments on the subject before us.

In the government you call civilized, the happiness of the people is constantly sacrificed to the splendor of empire; hence your code of civil and criminal laws have had their origin, and hence your dungeons and prisons. I will not enlarge on an idea so singular in civilized life, and perhaps disagreeable to you, and will only observe, that among us, we have no law but that written on the heart of every rational creature by the immediate finger of the Great Spirit of the universe himself. We have no prisons—we have no pompous parade of courts; and yet judges are as highly esteemed among us, as they are among you—and their decisions are highly revered; properly to say the least, is as well guarded, and crimes are as impartially punished. We have among us no splendid villas, above the control of that law which influences our decisions; in a word, we have no robbery under the colour of law. Daring wickedness here is never suffered to triumph over helpless innocence; the estates of widows and orphans are never devoured by enterprising shavers. Our sachems and our warriors eat their own bread and not the bread of wretchedness. No person among us, desires any other reward for a brave and virtuous action, than the consciousness of serving his nation. Our wise men are called fathers; they are always accessible; I will not say to the meanest of our people; for we have none mean, but such as render themselves so by their vices.

Civilization creates a thousand imaginary wants, that continually distress the human mind. I remember to have read, while at one of our schools, the saying of a philosopher to this purpose, "the real wants of human nature are very few." O, this maxim our people practice without ever having learned to read. We do not hunger and thirst after those superfluities of life, that are the ruin of so many families among you. Envy and covetousness, those worms that destroy the fair flowers of human happiness, are unknown to this climate.

The palaces and prisons among you, form a most dreadful contrast. Go to the former places, you will see, perhaps, a deformed piece of earth swelled with pride, and assuming airs that became none but the Spirits above. Go to one of your prisons—here description utterly fails!—certainly the sight of an Indian torture is not half so painful to a well formed mind. Kill them, if you please,—kill them too by torture; but let the torture last no longer than a day. Let it be too, of such a nature as has no tendency to unman the human mind. Give them an opportunity by their fortitude in death, of entitling themselves to the sympathy of the human race, instead of exciting in them mortifying reflections of being developed in the gulf of eternal infamy. These you call savages relent; the most ferocious of our tormentors exhausts his rage in a few hours, and dispatches the unhappy victim with a sad den stroke.

But for what are many of your prisoners confined? For debt—astonishing! and you ever call the Indian nation cruel! Liberty, to a rational creature, as much exceeds property, as the light of the sun does that of the most twinkling star; but you put them on a level, to the everlasting disgrace of civilization. Let me ask, is there any crime in being in debt? While I lived among the white people, I knew many of the most amiable characters contract debts, and I dare say with the best intentions in both parties at the time of the contract, to find their advantage. The debtor, I suppose by a train of unavoidable misfortunes, falls. Here is no crime, not even a fault; and yet your laws put it in the power of the creditor to throw the debtor into jail and confine him there for life; a punishment infinitely worse than death to a brave man. And I seriously declare, that I had rather die by the most severe tortures ever inflicted by any savage nation on the continent, than to languish in one of your prisons for a single year. Great Maker of the world! and you call yourselves Christians? I have read your bibles, formally, and should have thought it divine; if the practice of the most zealous professor had corresponded with his professions. Does then the religion of him whom you call saviour inspire this conduct, and lead you to this practice? Surely not. It was a sentence that once struck my mind with some force,—"that a bruised reed he never broke." Cease then, while these practices continue among you, to call yourselves Christians, lest you publish to the world your hypocrisy. Cease to call other nations savages while you are ten-fold more the children of cruelty than they are.

Fan-Sash Making.
METAL FAN-SASHES, of various descriptions, will be made by the subscriber, at his shop, lower end of Duke street. The want of a Metal Fan-Sash Manufactory in Alexandria, has hitherto been severely felt by builders and others, who have been compelled to make use of wood, which is neither elegant nor durable. The various forms into which the metal can be shaped have given it a decided superiority, and the difference in the price is very trifling. The subscriber has been at considerable expence in procuring the necessary preparations, and relies on public enterprise for success in the undertaking.
Gentlemen in the country, by sending the dimensions of their sashes, can have them made at the same price as in town.

Land for Sale.

THE Subscriber wishes to dispose of the whole or a part of a tract of LAND, containing between 6 and 700 acres, lying within 5 miles of Alexandria and 4 and a half from the Washington bridge, and divided into four parts by the Leesburg road and the turnpike from the Washington bridge to the Little River turnpike. No. 1 contains about 60 acres, has a fine orchard and some young wood, and is partly enclosed—No. 2, containing about 80, and No. 3 about 150 acres, lay nearest to Alexandria, and are entirely covered with a young growth of hickory and oaks with some wood—these three parts lay admirably for cultivation, and the latter has on it one of the finest springs in the county. No. 4 has on it a two story frame house with two large rooms on a floor, kitchen, laundry and smoke house, together with several tenements, one of which, situated at the junction of the two roads, is an excellent wagon stand, well known by the name of Bont's Tavern. There are on it also, several orchards, some fine springs, and a never failing stream sufficient for water works: part of it is in cultivation and tolerably well enclosed, with a sufficiency of wood. The three first parts may be had separately, or the whole together at a very moderate price, on the following terms, viz. One-fourth cash—one-fourth on the first September next, and the balance in two equal annual payments thereafter, with interest. Possession will be given the purchaser immediately. The title is good and free from encumbrance. The premises will be shown by J. B. McFarling, living there, and any application directed to me, in Washington City, will be attended to.

WM. B. RANDOLPH.

Bath House.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the public, that his Bath House is now and will remain in complete operation until the 15th inst. at which time should a sufficient number of subscribers be obtained, it will be continued during the season, otherwise he will be under the necessity of closing it on that day. The experience of former years, he trusts, will be a satisfactory apology for so doing, as without sufficient patronage to meet the expenses thereof, he cannot continue the bath house without incurring certain loss. Gentlemen disposed to encourage the establishment, will please to leave their names at his bar.

June 2 T. SHIELDS.

Abandoned,

ON the night of the 16th inst. my negro man JOHN, or JOHN ALLEN, (as he calls himself)—he is well known, having lived with me for several years, and has travelled a good deal with me. He is a very plausible fellow, about 50 years of age, slender made, and about 5 feet 5 inches high, rather of a yellow complexion, but the complete negro mouth and nose—has a small scar on one of his cheeks—has lately had a sore on his right leg, directly on the shin bone, which has the appearance of being much scored at a former period by disease or the small pox. His hat was made and stamped by Rogers of Baltimore. A reward of 10 dollars will be given if taken in the town or county of Alexandria, or Fairfax, 50 if in Baltimore or state of Maryland, and 100 if in Philadelphia or the state of Pennsylvania, and in like proportion if at any other place, with all reasonable charges for bringing him here and securing him in jail.

violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant and the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross hu-

ours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Ten-tes or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitae or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tenia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. It is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums;

itching in the nose, and about the seat;

convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

HAMILTON'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS.

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a nose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age. They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance; they are celebrated for removing habitual constiveness—sickness of the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.
